The 12th National Graduate Conference on International Relations Department of Diplomacy, NCCU

Call for Papers (English)

The Department of Diplomacy invites graduate students in the field of international relations to present at the 12th National Graduate Conference. The conference will be held on December 8th, 2018, at National Chengchi University (NCCU), Taipei. The conference theme this year is "The Future of Global Politics: joint progress on the development of theory and practice".

This Conference aims to provide a forum for graduate students to exchange research ideas and results. This is a great opportunity for young researchers to present their ongoing projects to their fellow students as well as to the scholars in the field of international relations. Papers from IR-related fields are welcome. The submission deadline is September 16th, 2018. Please fill in your information and an abstract of 500 words in the registration form and send it to dipcon@nccu.edu.tw. You may also submit your research proposal. A confirmation note will be sent to confirm your submission. The executive committee will notify the decision within a month. The presenter will submit a research paper by November 21st.
